May we display your company description and contact information on market websites?

Adding a photo helps you stand out among other vendors!

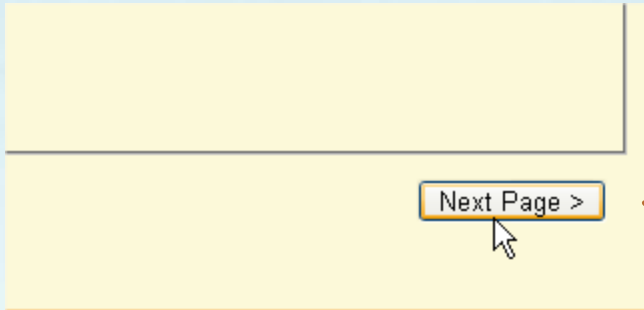

Your company description and photo may be used, with your permission, on the market website(s) for informational and advertising purposes.

Site visitors will be able to search for vendors and products, and your information (contact, company description and photo) will be displayed prominently.

For your company description, please write a terse (3-5 lines) paragraph; for your company photo, please upload an image that you feel captures the essence of your business. You may return to this page any time to update this and/or other information you submit.
